

New Pig Breeding Facility Opened in Invercargill

2 July, 2009 – LCT's new designated pathogen free pig breeding facility in Invercargill, Southland, New Zealand formally opened by the Mayor of Invercargill, Mr. Tim Shadbolt. The facility is designed to meet health regulations for pig herds used as a source of medical grade tissues.